OFFICE ORDERS

RTI CELL (Right to Information Cell)

The Right to Information Cell is headed by the Public Information Officer (PIO), who ensures timely reply of all the applications under Right to Information Act, 2005 (online and offline), which are received in the RTI Cell. The RTI Cell also co-ordinates with all the Bureaus/Cells/ Public Offices, so as to ensure timely reply to the RTI applicants and appeals. The PIO also attends all the hearings as required by the government authorities, i.e. University and Boards concerned, as and when filed by the appellants.

The applicability of the Right to Information (RTI) Act to private educational institutions varies by country. In India, for example, private educational institutions are generally not covered under the RTI Act since the Act primarily applies to public authorities. However, if a private institution receives substantial funding from the government or is deemed to be performing a public function, it may be subject to RTI.

The composition of the Right to Information Cell (RTI Cell) is provided as under:
